The Chicago City hall costing $5,000,000 was built without graft. Hurrah the world do move.

There is a strained relation between Colby and Bates to such an extent that the prospects are there will not be a foot ball game between the two this season.

Dr. Nanson in a paper read recently at Berlin examined the evidence in view of the Icelandic discovery of America, and repudiates it. He believes that Columbus was the first to discover America.

Since 1878 when the first practical incandescent lamps were introduced until the recent invention of the metallic filament lamp, the carbon filament lamp remained essentially unchanged.

So the Maine was blown up from the outside, it is nice to know the real facts even at this late day. It seems the leader of this band was poisoned soon after and one of the accomplices was ready to confess, our government took no notice of it.

Christy Mathewson has signed a contract for next year with the New York National Base Ball Club at a salary of $15000 for the season. The best part of it all is he did not have to ask for it. It was tended him. This is the highest salary in the history of the game.

In England they are experimenting on wheat raising and by a treatment given the seed they were able to mature wheat in eleven weeks, they expect to reduce the time to nine weeks. In our country now it takes about eighteen weeks. Surely the world progresses!

"Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord," etc. We wonder how many have read this poem since Oct. 17th ult, the day that Julia Ward Howe died. About every other publication in this country has published it since her death. Her reputation could rest on "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" alone.

The purchase of 1000 acres of land in Saco and Old Orchard last year by the McCorkle Abattoir Co. has been surrounded by more or less mystery. Last week they sold their holdings to the York Manufacturing of Saco for $110,000. It is understood they will build cotton mills, workmen houses, etc. It is also understood the enterprise is one of the biggest in the country and will take ten years to develope.

The life of a board of trade is about like this; A meeting for organization, than a few more meetings of talk then as the meetings get fewer and farther between a banquet, afterwards a smoker or two than a long interlude of nothing. Finally exit from the scene of actions,—farewell.—Business men will come together most any time when there is any thing real to work for, they are as a general thing too good business men to waste their time in talk.

One of the most picturesque as well as one of the greatest water-powers in the world is located a hundred miles back of the City of Mexico in the tropical mountains where the Necaxa river leaps amid flying spray and clouds of foam down cliffs from 300 to 800 feet in height, dropping 4,500 feet in less than 10 miles. This mighty waterfall has been harnessed to American made generators, the largest of their kind in the world, manufactured at Schenectady, N. Y., by the General Electric Company.

The new coal pocket, which the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co. is erecting at Northern Maine Junction will be finished in about two weeks. It is to have a capacity of about 5000 tons of coal and will be the most modern structure of the kind to be erected in this country. The coal is to be handled entirely by machinery from the time it is unloaded from the cars until it is loaded on them again and there will be practically no breakage. The coal will be towed from Elizaberthport, N. J., in the company's barges to Searsport, the seaport termin al of the Northern Maine Railroad, where it will be discharged and shipped by rail to the coal pocket at Northern Maine Junction.

Tuesday's Election.

The country which has been in the throes of a political campaign for the last few months arose Wednesday morning with expressions varying from joy to sorrow on the faces of its voters and citizens. It is one of those off years for the republicans which comes so often, through unavoidable circumstances and for which excuses to cover pages might be written, but suffice to say the republicans beat themselves and if a democrat victory was necessary to bring some of the leaders to their senses we can say truthfully we are glad it happened. What effect it will have upon business remains to be seen, we cannot see where it should have any effect. The democrats have a working majority in the house of about thirty up to this writing. The senate is republican by 10 to 16. A goodly number of the old republican war-horses have been returned to private life and a goodly number with Speaker Cannon as a leader have been returned to congress. It is sometimes well to take men fresh from the people and send them to Congress to replace those who have been there so long that they have gone stale like an old ball player. It is claimed that only two thirds of the republican voters went to the polls this election this fact coupled with the fact that a number of republicans were sore heads as they were in Maine this last September will go a long way to explain this recent [illegible] Let us hope everything is for the best and let us push onward to—

Boston Herald—"New York newspapers should not conceal the fact that the rejuvenated Holland House is to be run by a Boston man." Bangor has a prior claim on Frank Harriman. It is a big jump from Main street to Court square, but a still bigger jump from Court square to Fifth avenue. Frank Harriman was well known in Old Town years ago a son of Jesse Harriman a well known hotel man and is a nephew of Mrs. A B. Chase, Main St.

A hearing was held in the municipal court room in City Hall, Monday in the case of Barnes vs. Judkins, which is a claim of William Barnes for seven years superintendent on the farm of the late Mrs. Lucy A. Judkins of Alton. The bill for services was not acceptable to the heirs and was refused payment by the administrator. Accordingly, as the parties could not arrive at an agreement, Judge Pierce appointed Terence B Towle, Esq., and William P. Thompson, Esq., commissioners to hear the evidence in the case. F. W. Knowlton of Old Town represented the interests of Mr. Barnes at the hearing.

Mrs. C. W. Robbins with Mrs. Jennie Price Freese, Old Town's only registered woman guide have returned from a very pleasant hunting trip near Greenfield. They shot partridge and small game but saw no deer although they found tracks and signs of deer moose and bear. Two miles within the dense forest they came across a giant pine that had been shattered into kindling wood by the lightning during the electrical storm that had burned the Zetunia buildings in Greenfield. For thirty feet around lay the long white splinters the ground around also being plowed up by the bolt. Mrs. Freese has a camp near Birch's ream and owns a pleasant home in Argyle, she can guide her own motor boat and is one of the finest canoeists in Maine.

EAST MAINE CONFERENCE

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we look forward to the session of the East Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is to be in Old Town next spring. The date has been set by the board of Bishops for April 19, and Bishop Earl Cranston D D, L L D, of Washington D C is to preside. The appointment of Bishop Cranston for this session will be appreciated by the entire membership of the Conference for he is considered one of the strongest executives in the Board. He will be remembered by many persons in this vicinity as having presided at the Grace church, Bangor in 1898, two years after his consecration as Bishop. At the time of his election as Bishop, Dr Cranston was Book Agent, the title given the persons having in charge the publishing interests of the church, which amounts to millions of dollars annually.

At the Conference next April it is expected that some of the best speakers of the denomination will be present. Considerable time is necessary to complete the program as the speakers are secured from New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and elsewhere.

The local church is to be congratulated on having the Conference stated for Old Town, for both Dauforth and Newport wanted the session, cordial invitations were presented from these towns. Before presenting the invitation from Old Town the pastor, Rev. A. E Morris consulted with the pastors of the other churches in the city, as to the probability of the homes in their parishes being open to entertain the preachers and their wives during Conference week, and was assured of hearty co-operation on their part. But Old Town has a reputation for hospitality which has been emphasized with every opportunity to prove it. From now till spring will be a busy time preparing for the two hundred guests who will spend nearly a week in our city. We can assure them of a genuine welcome.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. sold by Mutty's Pharmacy.

Who Will Win?

Several who have read the Christmas offer given in a previous issue where new subscribers in the county may have the ENTERPRISE from now until January 1st, 1912 for $1 00 or out of this county for $1 25 for the same length of time, have expressed their intention of subscribing the ENTERPRISE for a year for relatives and friends for a Christmas present. This means more votes for the contestants, and a need of more hustling on their part

In the contest of 1902, which run just 4 months and 1 week, the number of votes brought into the office were 15,320 the winning contestant having a credit of 10,325 of those

In 1907 the contest which run 3 months brought in 17,700 votes, the winner having a credit of 7,440 votes

The present contest has run just 3 months this week, and the total votes brought in, has been 4,396, the leader having 2 240, votes to her credit

Now its new subscribers we need and must have, and "its money that makes the mare go" A handsome new "King Kineo Range" like the one we are giving away, and which is on exhibition at the store of Thomas Murphy, and the elegant new "suit of Clothes of To-day" which are at the store of W. E Hellenbrand are not obtained without some price, that is a constant effort, and that effort must be on the part of the contestants, as our part are the free gifts.

Now who will win? It's up to you contestants, subscribers and the friends of the ENTERPRISE Not a citizen should refuse or make any excuse for not taking the local home paper. It's your paper, we print it for your benefit, the benefit of the city and you should sustain it as you would sustain any other public enterprise

Contestants keep at it and win out with a larger vote as previous contestants have

BIENNIAL ELECTION—PENOBSCOT TRIBE

Governor, Peter M. Nicolar
Lieut., Louis Ketchum
Rep. to Legislature, Lola Coly
Constable, Newell H. Tomer

The Penobscot Indians are not behind their white brothers on biennial elections. The confusion and warfares of years ago between the new parties striving each year for control has been done away with and a compromise whereby an election is held every two years with each party alternating has eliminated all strife or conflict

The biennial election was held Tuesday Nov 1st with the above named result and so quietly was it carried on that it was most a week before the public knew about it The officers above named are most prominent on the island and are held in high esteem both on and off the island Peter M Nicolar is a well-known guide and merchants and has been going to the Rangely regions for years where he has a store and he and his wife sell indian wares which they make in the winter Gov Nicolar has one of the largest and most comfortable homes on the island and is one of the most thrifty members of the tribe

Louis Ketchum is also a long time resident of the island and a most agreeable and well informed Indian He is one of the best known guides in Maine and knows the state from a sportsmans standpoint from one end to an other.

Lola Coly is another well known number of the tribe and one of its oldest members He has held various offices in the tribe He is a well known guide and river-man and a civil war veteran

Newell H Tomer is one of the younger members of the tribe and is a canoe maker He is now employed by the Old Town Canoe Co and is one of the most prominent of the younger generation

The officers do not require much work but give the tribe a form of government and standing that is necessary in all communities and furnish a power to act when it is necessary The inaugural ceremonies will take place January 1, '11 and it is usually accompanied by a ball and concert and is attended by invited guests of Old Town and vicinity It is the event of the year and is looked forward to with much pleasure —We wish the newly elected officers much peace and prosperity for their coming term of office.

Mrs. Joan Purrington has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Maria Wadleigh for a time

The Neeburban Club will meet on Tuesday evening, Nov 15 with Mrs. Flora M. Carleton at her home on Fourth St.

Miss Ruth Lockwood, who attends school at Wellesley, Mass., was home recently, called here by the illness and death of her brother, Ralph W Lockwood

The Universalist Sabbath school will meet at Tarratine hall Sunday at 11.30 o'clock All children of the school are requested to be present and get organized for the winter's work.

Mrs. Marie Wadleigh and her daughter, Mrs. Osgood entertained the ladies society of the Congregational church and gentlemen friends at supper Thursday evening at their home on Fourth St a large attendance being present.

REAPING BENEFIT.

From the Experience of Old Town People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterance of Old Town residents on the following subjects will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Mrs Mary E Kirk, 122 Fourth St., Old Town, Me, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was well pleased with the results. I felt miserable for several months and suffered from dull headaches, dizzy spells and an ache across the small of my back. My kidneys did not act as they should and I knew they must be treated. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a box at Mutty's Pharmacy. They proved so beneficial that I join other persons in recommending them."
